

ALARM ASSOCIATION OF GREATER ST. LOUIS MEMBER AGREEMENT

_____, a _____ [state/type of entity] (“Member”), as a member of the Alarm Association of Greater St. Louis (“Association”), hereby agrees to uphold the objectives of the Association. Member agrees to conduct its work and business in accordance with the Association’s “Code of Ethics” and “Minimum Installation Standards” as set forth in the Association’s Bylaws. This agreement includes, but is not limited to, the following stipulations:

1. to work with the police and fire officials on alarm ordinances to ensure that they are drafted in a manner that is in the best interest of the officials, alarm users, and alarm installation companies;
2. to help ensure that other Association members abide by the “Code of Ethics” and “Minimum Installation Standards”;
3. to stimulate the more extensive use of electronic security systems in the greater St. Louis area;
4. to exchange non-proprietary information amongst Association members that is mutually beneficial to exchange, but that would not conflict with antitrust laws;
5. to disseminate knowledge to Association members that may help them to improve their services and the success of their business; and
6. to act as a united group of proprietors when representing the alarm industry on matters affecting the alarm systems business.

Member understands that if it violates any of the foregoing Association’s objectives, or violates the Association’s “Code of Ethics” or “Minimum Installation Standards” as set forth in the Association’s Bylaws (refer to Exhibit A attached), it may be removed as a member of the Association.
